Privacy Policy

At GCC Brokers Limited, we are dedicated to upholding the highest standards of integrity. As part of our business operations, it becomes necessary to collect Personal Information about our potential clients. We approach this responsibility with utmost seriousness, striving to offer fair, secure, and appropriate methods for handling Personal Information. Our practices adhere to widely accepted privacy ethics and standard business protocols.

Rest assured that the collection and management of your Personal Information are conducted in compliance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). We may share your Personal Information with a limited number of trusted partners and/or affiliates of GCC Brokers Limited. This sharing is solely for the purpose of managing your account and will not breach any elements of the GDPR.

Should you have any inquiries or feedback concerning our Privacy Policy, please don't hesitate to reach out to our Customer Support Team: cs@gccbrokers.com. We value your privacy and are committed to providing transparency and accountability in our data handling practices.

Personally Identifiable Information

At GCC Brokers Limited, we consider the privacy and security of your personal data as of utmost importance. We process your personal data when you explicitly opt-in and provide us with your consent during the application process for opening a trading account. This processing is based on the lawful ground that it is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you, as the data subject, are a party, or to take pre-contractual steps at your request.

When you open a trading account with GCC Brokers Limited, we will request information such as your name, address, employment details, and salary information. This is in compliance with the Money Laundering Regulations 2018, as well as our regulatory requirements and policies at GCC Brokers Limited, aimed at establishing proof of your identity and address during the onboarding process. We take the responsibility of verifying your identity seriously, and this involves requesting and processing copies of your Personally Identifiable Information. We may also engage trusted third-party services to perform electronic verifications on our behalf.

In some cases, if initial verification attempts are unsuccessful, you may be asked to provide additional information to support the verification process. Please note that, where applicable, we may use the personal information you provide to contact you in the future

Cookies

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your device when you visit a website. They serve various purposes, such as remembering your preferences, enabling smooth navigation between pages, and providing personalized content and advertisements. Session cookies are temporary and are deleted when you close your browser, while persistent cookies stay on your device until they expire or are manually deleted. Cookies help website owners analyze user behavior and improve the overall user experience. However, you have the option to control and manage cookie settings in your web browser.

Session Cookies

We use session cookies for the following purposes:

- To enable you to carry information across different pages of our website and avoid re-entering information.
- Within registration to allow you access to stored information.
- Non-personal data for tagging purposes only (using random numbers).

Persistent Cookies

We use persistent cookies for the following purposes:

GCC Brokers Limited is registered in Mauritius, and regulated by the Financial Services Commission, Mauritius (FSC Mauritius) under registration number: C193243.

Privacy Policy

- To recognize you as a unique visitor (using just a number) when you return to our website and tailor content or advertisements based on your interests or to avoid showing repetitive ads.
- To compile anonymous, aggregated statistics to understand how users use our site and improve its structure.
- To internally identify you with account name, email address, customer ID, currency, and location (geographic and computer ID/IP address).
- To differentiate users on the same network and allocate bets to the appropriate account.
- Within research surveys to ensure you are not invited to complete a questionnaire too often or after you have already done so.
